

The Acton Historical Society's Holiday Open House

Saturday and Sunday December 2-3

1:00 pm to 4:00 pm

300 Main Street, Acton

Free (Donations gratefully accepted)

Featuring:

- “Acton’s Sweet Tooth – Then and Now” From Loraine’s Candies in the 1920’s to the Happy Chocolatier today, Acton has a rich history of candy making
- Mold your own chocolate candy in the Hosmer House kitchen
- Tour the 1760 Jonathan Hosmer House, decorated in its holiday finest by the Acton Garden Club
- Collection of Fanny Farmer candy tins provided by Leon Poirier

Saturday 2:00

Leon Poirier's Program on

History of Fanny Farmer Candy

Sunday 2:00

World War One Field Organ

Try your hand at playing it or sing along to Holiday songs

Acton Historical Society Gifts for Sale

- * New AHS Cookbook
- * Acton themed items
- * Visit www.actonhistoricalsociety.org for pictures of what we have!

